[illegible]

A musical score for a string quartet, showing a single staff with a series of vertical lines representing notes. The notes are arranged in a rhythmic pattern, with some groups of notes beamed together. The staff is a five-line system, and the notes are positioned on and between the lines. The overall appearance is that of a handwritten musical manuscript.

A musical score for a string quartet, featuring four staves with dense, rhythmic notation. The notation consists of many vertical lines, suggesting a complex, fast-paced piece. The staves are arranged horizontally, and the notation is dense and rhythmic, with many vertical lines indicating a fast tempo or a complex rhythmic pattern.

A musical score for a string quartet, featuring four staves with handwritten notes and rests. The notation is dense, with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes, suggesting a fast tempo. The staves are arranged in a traditional four-part setting, with the first staff likely for the first violin, the second for the second violin, the third for the viola, and the fourth for the cello and double bass. The handwriting is in dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper.
